Rejections under 35 U.S.C. § 103

The Office Action rejects Claims 1-2, 6-10, 25-26, and 30-34 under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 6,298,441 to Handelsman et al. ("Handelsman") in view of U.S. Patent No. 6,195,667 to Duga et al. ("Duga"), and U.S. Patent No. 5,890,177 to Moody et al. ("Moody") and in further view of U.S. Patent No. 5,553,216 to Yoshioka et al. ("Yoshioka"), Claims 3 and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over Handelsman in view of Duga and Moody, in further view of Yoshioka, and in further view of U.S. Patent No. 6,675,384 to Block et al ("Block"), and Claim 50 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 5,761,681 to Huffman et al. ("Huffman") in view of Duga, Handelsman, Moody, and Yoshioka. To the extent that the rejections remain applicable to the claims currently pending, the Applicants traverse the rejections, as follows.

The Applicants submit that Handelman, Duga, Moody, Yoshioka, Block and Huffman, taken alone or in combination, fail to disclose or suggest a method for restricting access to electronic books displayed on a viewer, including at least the following combination of features: “displaying the electronic book on the viewer; receiving at the viewer an identification of restricted content from the user; saving an unrestricted version of the electronic book in at least one of the library unit and the viewer, the unrestricted version including the original format of the electronic book; creating a restricted version of the electronic book and saving the restricted version of the electronic book in at least one of the library unit and the viewer, wherein the restricted version includes the unrestricted version of the election book with portions of the unrestricted version deleted, wherein the deletions are based on the identification of restricted content from the user; and inserting a cross-reference to the restricted version of the electronic book in a header portion of the unrestricted version of the electronic book,” as recited in amended claim 1.

For at least the above reasons, the Applicants submit that amended claim 1 is allowable over the cited references, taken alone or in combination. For similar reasons, the Applicants submit that amended claims 10, 25, 34 and 50 are also allowable over the cited references, taken alone or in combination.

As claims 1, 10, 25, 34 and 50 are allowable, the Applicants submit that claims 2-3, 7-9, 26-27, and 30-33, which depend from claims 1 and 25, respectively, are likewise allowable over the cited references, taken alone or in combination, as well as for the additional features recited therein.

CONCLUSION

For all of the above reasons, it is respectfully submitted that the claims now pending patentability distinguish the present invention from the cited references. Accordingly, reconsideration and withdrawal of the outstanding rejections and an issuance of a Notice of Allowance are earnestly solicited. Should the Examiner determine that any further action is necessary to place this application into allowable form, the Examiner is encouraged to telephone the undersigned representative.
